

It's time for your check-up: your financial check-up

BY LILA QUINTILIANI, MILITARY SAVES

This April, join Military Saves for a virtual event that encourages everyone in the military community to focus on their individual financial wellness. Over the course of a month, Military Saves will cover financial topics from a relatable, down-to-earth, positive perspective. You'll end the month with tools, resources, and clarity on your current financial situation, new savings goals, and a realistic plan to achieve them.

How CFPB is helping consumers during Financial Capability Month

BY DESMOND BROWN, CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU (CFPB)

April is National Financial Capability Month, a time when CFPB typically encourages people to take action to improve their financial futures. It might be difficult, however, to think about improving your financial future during the current COVID-19 pandemic, which continues to bring heavy financial stress to many families across our country.

BBB Tip: Give yourself a spring digital makeover

BY BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU

If you have a few extra hours or minutes in your day, it may be a good time to give yourself a digital makeover. Taking some simple, proactive steps will go a long way in safeguarding against any number of potentially disruptive issues – like identity theft, loss of funds or credit card fraud – that can cause mayhem by compromising your data. Take the time to put into practice a few precautionary measures and you will have greater peace of mind – not only this spring, but all year round.

not alone. That's why the three national credit reporting agencies, which last year gave people weekly access to monitor their credit report at no cost, are extending that benefit until April 20, 2022.
