What to Expect When the Tenant Bill of Rights Takes Effect

BY DEREK DOYLE, MILITARY FAMILY ADVISORY NETWORK

Residents who live in military housing across the nation will soon be afforded new protections under the U.S. Department of Defense’s Tenant Bill of Rights beginning June 1, 2021. The Military Housing Privatization Initiative Tenant Bill of Rights outlines 18 rights of service members and families who live in privatized military housing. Military families are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Tenant Bill of Rights and Tenant Responsibilities.

Your TSP: How to Make Your Money Work for You
BY CLOUD SPURLOCK, MILITARY SAVES
Before your first paycheck from your very first job hit your bank account, you may have heard the good advice to “pay yourself first.” Of course, that didn’t mean you should go out and buy whatever what-have-you was on your wish list. Instead, it meant you needed to set aside money for someone else—someone who may as well have been a perfect stranger at the time—your future self.

Unwanted Calls: Block and Report Them
BY JIM KREIDLER, FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION (FTC)
Unwanted calls are annoying. They can feel like a constant interruption — and many are from scammers. Unfortunately, technology makes it easy for scammers to make millions of calls a day. Learn how you can block unwanted calls.
